MOVING PICTURE MEN HEAR EXPERT'S ADVICE

L. Rothapfel of New York Explains How to Produce "Perfumed Movies."

Addresses Proprietors of Local EVENTS OF INTEREST Houses at a Meeting at the Raleigh Hotel.

Local moving picture men heard much advice on how to run their busines when S. L. Rothapfel of New York, a motion picture exhibitor, being sent on a speaking tour to cover the whole United States by the Mutual Film Corporation, spoke on the ups and downs of the industry at a meeting held at the Raleigh Hotel last night. "Perfumed movies" will be one of many innovations awaiting the picture goers of the National Capital if the local exhibitors put into operation the suggestions handed out by Mr. Roth apfel.

The speaker told how in one of his theaters he had perfumed strips of tissue paper blowing in the wind of elec tric fans during a meadow scene, help-This was but one of many suggestion which Mr. Rothaptel gave his hearers His commonsense advice covered al which Mr. Rothaptel gave his hearers. His commonsense advice covered all branches of exhibiting. He advised the local men to have absolute co-operation in their theaters with every one of their employes, from the lowest salaried to the highest, and recommended courtesy in all their dealing with the public.

In Memoriam.

BARNES. In loving remembrance of our dear son. GEORGE G. BARNES, who departed this life one year ago tomorrow, October 24, 1914.

I never shall forget you
While in this world I stay:
I hope that we will meet again
When God calls me away. BY HIS LOVING MOTHER AND FATHER

There is a sad, sad longing
Deep down in my heart today
To see once again my dear broth
Whom death took from me away.

It's one sad year since Georgie left us. Whom we loved and cherished dear. Can we help but feel so lonely When his voice we do not hear?

Dearest loved one, how we miss you Since you passed away. And our hearts are aching sorely As we think of you each day. But we know that you are happy in the mansion of the blest, Where there is no pain or sorro On your sweet elernal rest.

BY HIS BROTHER ARCHIE,

HERBERT. In sad but leving memory of our devoted husband, father and grandfather, CLEMENT HERBERT, who entered the sweet haven of rest six years ago today, October 23, 1909. THE FAMILY.

All members of Grantling Tabernacle, No. 70, of Moses, are hereby notified to attend called meeting Sunday, October 24, 7 p.m., al Samarlinn Temple, I street southwest, to make arrangements for the funeral of our beloved brother, STANTON WALTON, Funeral Monday, I oclose, from Ziou Baptist Church, F street southwest, Ordered by FRANK PAYTON, Acting W. 8, M. V. BELL, Secretary.

It is just one year ago today.

Since my dear son passed away:
My heart is sad, my days are few.
I'll soon be resting there with you.

One year has passed, dear brother, Since we were forced to part, But time and place cannot efface Your memory from our hearts. BY HIS BROTHER CHARLIS

And I often sit and wonder
At what he'd think and say
If he only know the changes
That have happened since that day.
BY HIS BROTHER JOHNNIL

A year has passed, oh, how we miss him; Friends may think the wound is healed. But they little know the sorrow That is within our hearts concealed. BY HIS BROTHER WILLIAM.

GIBSON. In sad but loving remembrance of our devoted mother, JOSEPHINE GIBSON, who catered the haven of rest ten years ago to-day, October 23, 1865. BY HER DAUGHTERS, MRS. A. JASPER AND JOSEPHINE GIBSON.

MONTAGUE. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister. MAREL MONTAGUE, who departed this life one year ago today, October 23, 1914.

One year has passed and gone; thy memory still stands fresh today in our hearts. Some day we shall meet to part no upore.

BY HER BELOVED MOTHER, KATIE LOCK-WOOD.
